

GLOBAL vs. ETHICAL

WEDNESDAY, 25TH JANUARY 2012
BROADWAY CINEMA, NOTTINGHAM
10.30AM – 4.00PM

---

10.30AM – 11.00AM Sally Denton – Managing Director, The Trend Boutique

Introducing the Global vs. Ethical conference & providing an insight into how future trends are being influenced by the growing need for sustainable fashion, textiles & product design.

<http://thetrendboutique.co.uk/>

---

11.00AM – 11.45AM Derek Jackson – Global Ethical Trading Manager, Monsoon Accessorise

Discussing the ethical, sustainable, environmental and global aspects of being a High Street retailer, and how Monsoon Accessorise ensure they act responsibly & take a sustainable approach to sourcing.

<http://www.monsoon.co.uk/> <http://www.accessorize.com/>

---

12.00PM – 12.45PM Ayten Mustafa – Director & Owner, Ayten Gasson

A great opportunity to hear why directional lingerie label Ayten Gasson has taken a conscious decision to source all of their production in the UK using traditional manufacturers & skills, plus have also created their own eco lingerie range made using organic & cruelty free silk.

<http://www.aytengasson.com/>

---

1.15PM – 2.00PM Nicola Woods – Director & Owner, Beautiful Soul

Beautiful Soul understands the balance and reconciliation between fashion, style and sustainability that they incorporate throughout both their Ready-to-Wear range 'Beautiful Soul London' and a bespoke 'Kimono Collection', this is a fantastic chance to understand how luxury fashion can still have a conscience.

<http://www.beautiful-soul.co.uk/>

---

2.15PM – 3.00PM Katherine Ross – Corporate and Event Coordinator, Environmental Justice Foundation (EJF)

EJF campaigns internationally on environmental issues & work locally with grassroots partners to solve problems surrounding cotton production, pesticides and climate refugees amongst others, here they provide an insight into some of their successful campaigns and how we can help make a difference.

<http://www.ejfoundation.org/>

---

3.15PM – 4.00PM Davina Hawthorne – Director & Owner, Davina Hawthorne

Davina Hawthorne designs have a real emphasis on textiles, texture & print design, plus the label is also based around incorporating hand-crafted techniques & recycled components, find out how she creates such a contemporary, feminine look whilst staying true to her initial ideals.

<http://www.davinahawthorne.com/>

---